

"The Partition Museum in Amritsar has won seven awards, and very regularly pops up as the most-visited place in Amritsar"

LADY KISHWAR DESAI
Chair, Partition Museum, Amritsar, Delhi, The Arts and Cultural Heritage Trust

"We need to think of museums in a new manner, which is more public intensive; more open to even the local populace, because they form an important component"

ASHISH KHOKAR
Curator-Advisor, Mohan Khokar Dance Collection @IGNCA

"For me, a museum is a place of engagement. It's not a place which showcases just the past. It's a place which also celebrates the present"

ADITYA ARYA
Director, Museo Camera, Centre for the Photographic Arts

"One way of doing a museum is to put lots of panels, but to be a good quality museum you need credible artifacts"

OKEN TAYENG
Director, The WW2 Hump Museum, Pasighat

ON THE DIGITAL HIGHWAY

❶ "At Helmet Stories, we try to provide experiences of the places we've travelled to in the way that we like ourselves—slow travel, mingling with people, etc"

HARSH MAN RAI, Co-founder, Helmet Stories

❷ "My most adventurous trip till date was to Everest Base Camp, on a bike with a dog. It was challenging and phenomenal"

CHOW SURENG RAJKONWAR, Travel influencer

❸ "You find some very interesting stories on the highways of India—amazing people, amazing food, amazing culture. You get to learn so much"

SUNNY CHAUHAN, Founder, SBR AutoMedia