WONDER WALLS

When they said, let the walls do all the talking, clearly they meant Casa Pop's new lanch–Inscape. It is a collection of wallpapers by Raseel Gujral Ansal, the creative director of Raseel at Casa Pop, who has combined centuries of cultural influences with her personal life to create them. The visual vocabulary of the wallpaper collection is dominated by motifs that are a representation of the Indian subcontinent's rich cultural past. The fusion of Central Asian, Persian, and Indian motifs in the foreground of the wallpapers is a testament to the inclusive and adaptive nature of Indian culture.
