WHY JARANGE-PATIL MATTERS

- Manoj Jarange-Patil, 42, born in a poor Maratha family of sugarcane cutters at Matori in Beed's Shirur-Kasar taluka, is chief of the 'Shivba Sanghatana'
- The Class XII dropout is now the face of the Maratha quota movement with an outsized influence in Marathwada region which has 46 crucial assembly seats
- Since his first hunger strike in Aug. '23, he has been on five more, most of which ended only after the Maharashtra CM's personal intervention
- Has been very critical of deputy CM Devendra Fadnavis of the BJP, blames him for the quota imbroglio; some impute CM Eknath Shinde's hand in it
